Promoting Business Investment in the United States

Promote business investment in the United States

- Geographically neutral in the United States
- Housed in the U.S. Department of Commerce; Represented by the Commercial Service at U.S. Embassies and Consulates around the World
- Clients: Firms and U.S. Economic Development Organizations (EDOs)

What we do for firms and EDOs:

- Facilitate Business Inquiries
- Act as Ombudsman and Advocate
- Connect Investors with State/Local EDOs

SelectUSA Services

SelectUSA works on an interagency basis to provide a firm actionable information and counseling and help...

- Information & Counseling
- Collect publicly available data and analysis for its due diligence
- Understand basic U.S. tax and legal concepts
- Navigate federal rules or regulations
- Learn about incentives available to businesses in the United States
- Connect with U.S. state, city, or regional economic development offices
- Incorporate a business in the United States

Ombudsman Assistance

SelectUSA works across the federal government on a case by case basis to:

Address foreign investor concerns and issues

Connect with a federal agency/ office to seek insight into a specific case

Offer to facilitate direct communication between the relevant federal agency and the client, as appropriate

Identify federal regulations or processes to U.S. policy makers, that may negatively impact the U.S. business climate

Investor inquiries with SelectUSA are treated as business confidential, and the Ombudsman function is conducted by SelectUSA headquarters.

What incentives and programs are there for foreign investors?

Federal Programs/Incentives

The Federal Interagency Investment Working Group (IIWG) was established to help coordinate activities across the many agencies that promote business investment and respond to specific issues that affect investment decisions. The IIWG is focused on continually improving federal investment programs and resources, bringing to bear the expertise and tools each agency has to offer.
